

Bibliographical sketch

During the past 31 years, Franklin Dexter, MD PhD FASA, and his colleagues have developed and improved upon the science of anesthesia group and operating room management. Dr. Dexter completed a Sc.B. in Applied Mathematics & Biology with Honors from Brown University; Master's Degree & Ph.D. in Biomedical Engineering, with specialization in biomathematics, from Case Western Reserve University; M.D. degree from Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine; and Anesthesiology residency at the University of Iowa. He is a Professor in the Department of Anesthesia at the University of Iowa. He teaches a four-day intensive course in operating room management several times a year. He has given over 190 invited presentations in the United States and abroad. In multiple editorial positions, he has reviewed more than 8245 papers and grant applications, for 131 journals over the past 5 years. As Director of the Division of Management Consulting in the Department of Anesthesia, he has performed more than 970 consultations for more than 245 corporations. He has published more than 735 papers in the fields of operating room management and anesthesia. His h-index is 81. Details of his background, expertise, contact information, as well as the comprehensive bibliography of scientific papers in OR management, are at FranklinDexter.net

Return to Frequently Asked Questions